Accessories Precautions
The GPS antenna is located in the dashboard. Metallic front or side window tinting can seriously degrade or obstruct GPS reception. Signal noise from devices such as radar detectors, vehicle tracking devices, remote starters, and additional amplifiers can disrupt the navigation system. If you install any such item, install it away from the navigation display and antenna.

Important Safety Information

⚠️ WARNING
Using the navigation system while driving can take your attention away from the road, causing a crash in which you could be seriously injured or killed.

Only operate system controls when the conditions permit you to safely do so.

Avoid focusing on the screen or manually operating the system controls while driving.
Certain on-screen controls are disabled when driving, however most of the voice commands continue to function. Pull to the side of the road if you need to devote more attention and time to look at the screen or access additional menus.
Route guidance may conflict with street closures, road construction, detours, and out-of-date map data.
The system itself may also have limitations. Verify route information by carefully observing roads, signs, and signals. Always use your own judgment and obey traffic laws.

⚠️ System Limitations P. 128

NOTICE
This vehicle's navigation display, if so equipped, includes mercury-containing components. Upon removal, please reuse, recycle, or dispose of as hazardous waste. Clean the screen with a soft, damp cloth. You may use a mild cleaner intended for use on navigation screens.

Troubleshooting

1. Why does the vehicle position icon on the map appear slightly off my actual position, especially at intersections?
   This is normal. The navigation system is unaware of the width of intersections. Large differences in vehicle position can indicate a temporary loss of the GPS signal.

2. Why does the “Arrival time” display sometimes increase even though I am getting closer to my destination?
   The “Arrival time” is based on the speed limit on each road. Depending on the traffic conditions, the “Arrival time” may be calculated to be earlier or later.

3. Why does my clock frequently change the time forward and backward by one hour?
   The clock setting is automatically updated based on your GPS location. If you are driving near a time zone border, the automatic update is the likely reason.

   Select Settings > Navigation and enable Voice Prompts.

2. Press the (Home) icon.

How to Use This Manual
This section explains different methods on how you can easily find information in this manual.

Searching the Table of Contents

Two types of Tables of Contents help you find your desired information.

First, find the general chapter related to what you are looking for (e.g., entering a destination from the Saved). Then, go to that chapter to view a more specific table of contents.

Searching the Index

Menu items displayed on the navigation screen (e.g., Saved) can be found individually in the Index.

The Index consists of main terms and sub-entries. The sub-entries help you get to the desired page depending on what you are looking for.
Select the item on the system control panel.

The menu tree helps guide you through the system's menu options. To get to your desired function, follow the menu tree in order of the steps shown.

After following the menu tree, step-by-step instructions explain how to achieve the desired result.

Sample pages and images in this section may differ from the actual ones.

System Limitations

GPS

The signals received from GPS satellites are extremely weak (less than a millionth of the strength of a local FM station) and require an unobstructed view of the sky. GPS antenna is located in the dashboard. The signal reception can easily be interrupted or interfered with by the following:

- Metallic window tint on the front or side windows
- Cellular phones, PDAs, or other electronic devices docked in a cradle or lying loose on the dashboard
- Remote starters or “hidden” vehicle tracking systems mounted near the navigation unit
- Audio electronic devices mounted near the navigation unit
- Trees, tall buildings, highway overpasses, tunnels, or overhead electrical power wires

GPS is operated by the U.S. Department of Defense. For security reasons, there are certain inaccuracies built into GPS for which the navigation system must constantly compensate. This can cause occasional positioning errors of up to several hundred feet (meters).

Address Calculation

The destination icon shows only the approximate location of a destination address. This occurs if the number of possible addresses is different from the number of actual addresses on a block. For example, the address 1425 on a 1400 block with 100 possible addresses (because it is followed by the 1500 block) will be shown a quarter of the way down the block by the system. If there are only 25 actual addresses on the block, the actual location of address 1425 would be at the end of the block.

Database

The digitized map database reflects conditions as they existed at various points in time before production. Accordingly, your database may contain inaccurate or incomplete data or information due to the passage of time, road construction, changing conditions, or other causes.

For example, some places/landmarks may be missing when you search the database because the name was misspelled, the place was improperly categorized, or a place/landmark is not yet in the database. This is also true for police stations, hospitals, and other public institutions. Do not rely on the navigation system if you need law enforcement or hospital services. Always check with local information sources.
The database does not include, analyze, process, consider, or reflect any of the following categories of information:

- Neighborhood quality or safety
- Population density
- Availability or proximity of law enforcement
- Emergency, rescue, medical, or other assistance
- Construction work, zones, or hazards
- Road and lane closures
- Legal restrictions (such as vehicular type, weight, load, height, and speed restrictions)
- Road slope or grade
- Bridge height, width, weight, or other limits
- Traffic facilities safety
- Special events
- Pavement characteristics or conditions

Every effort has been made to verify that the database is accurate. The number of inaccuracies you experience increases the longer you go without obtaining an updated map database.

We assume no liability for any incident that may result from an error in the program, or from changed conditions not noted above.
